Conference Proposal Guidelines

The SCOSS Program Committee welcomes any proposals on topics related to education, personal health, the joys of teaching, and the conference theme SCOSS 2024 SprINg Conference All "In" for Student Success. Proposals should, however, be based on sound theoretical practices, research, and ongoing practices in the field of education.

Appropriate topics are not limited to but can include:

- ❖ Emotional intelligence
- ❖ Self-efficacy
- ❖ Self-awareness, stress management, and/or conflict resolution strategies
- ❖ Classroom management & instructional delivery techniques
- ❖ Student personal responsibility (study skills, time management)
- ❖ Teaching and learning techniques for learning-challenged students
- ❖ Supportive systems such as tutoring and supplemental instruction
- ❖ Methods to facilitate student success

Session Format

Forty-five (45) minutes is allotted for each presentation, including question and answer time. Sessions may include lectures/discussions, hands-on activities, panel presentations, or demonstrations.

Presentations will be offered as concurrent sessions on Friday, April 19, 2024.

All presentation rooms are equipped with a computer, projector, screen, hand-held microphone, lapel microphone, and podium. However, Presenters may bring their laptop computer and attachments.

QR codes will link to session evaluations following each session.

NOTE: SCOSS is unable to reimburse presenters for travel or hotel expenses. Presenters must register and pay conference fees, which include lunch and beverage breaks.

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION: March 22, 2024
